

Please Pray for the Students in Padibe, Uganda
Who are Sponsored by the Family of Four Parishes

Joseph Anywar

Elvis Pacotoo

Denis Onencan

Jacqueline Atimango

Alex Ogal

Winnifred Adong

Rocky Pacotoo

Requel Onono William

Nancy Lamara

Lillian Aber

Isaac Oryem Olum

Joseph Ojara Taban

Guide to the Meanings of Names:

- Ojara = "extra fingers or toes". When someone is born with five fingers or more is called Ojara and a girl is Lajara.
- Onono = "nothing or without anything" in Acholi dialect
- Anywar = "mistreatment"
- Ocan = "someone born in poverty"
- Atimango = "what can I do?"
- Ogal = "the only one who survive"
- Pacoto = "there is no one to take care of the home"
- Agenorwot = "trust and have hope in the Lord and all shall go well"
- Onencan = "the person born during the time of extreme poverty"
- Rubangakene = "God alone"
- Owaci = "talked"
- Oryem = "chase"
- Lamara = "loved"
- Aber = "beautiful"
- Adong = "left behind"
- Lapwoch = "thankful"
- Alaro = "the child born to cement the relationship"

Getting to know San Ildefonso Parish in Chiapas, Mexico

Pastor: Padre Tonio Salazar Gonzalez

Photos captured by SSPP parishioner
Patrick Manning during 2018-19 sister parish trips

Pictured are organic coffee beans growing on the plant at a Kulaktik Coffee Farm.

Two Farmers of the Kulaktik Organic Coffee Cooperative with Padre Tonio and Father Tim after a tour of the coffee farm.

Join the Family of Four Parishes on Wednesday October 27th from 6-7:00pm for a virtual Educational Event as we learn more about the sister parishes in Chiapas, Mexico and Padibe, Uganda. RSVP to Mamie Riyeff at mriyeff@ffpmke.org for the details and the virtual link.

Parishioner Julie Mickelson at the Kulaktik Coffee Warehouse with sister parishioners of San Ildefonso.

Attending Indoor Mass at local Hermita (a smaller church hand-built and funded by local parishioners). Presiders: Father Tim and Padre Tonio.

The Sister Parish of San Ildefonso in Chiapas has a thriving two-story parish center that houses many activities including catechetical classes, retreats, deacon formation meetings, youth meetings, and liturgical celebrations among many other activities. Here is a picture of the completed Parish center as of April of 2020. Photo courtesy of Padre Tonio